

WASC-0109 ●

Powder Boat
Model

Located in Main Exhibition

PHOTOS

INSIDE

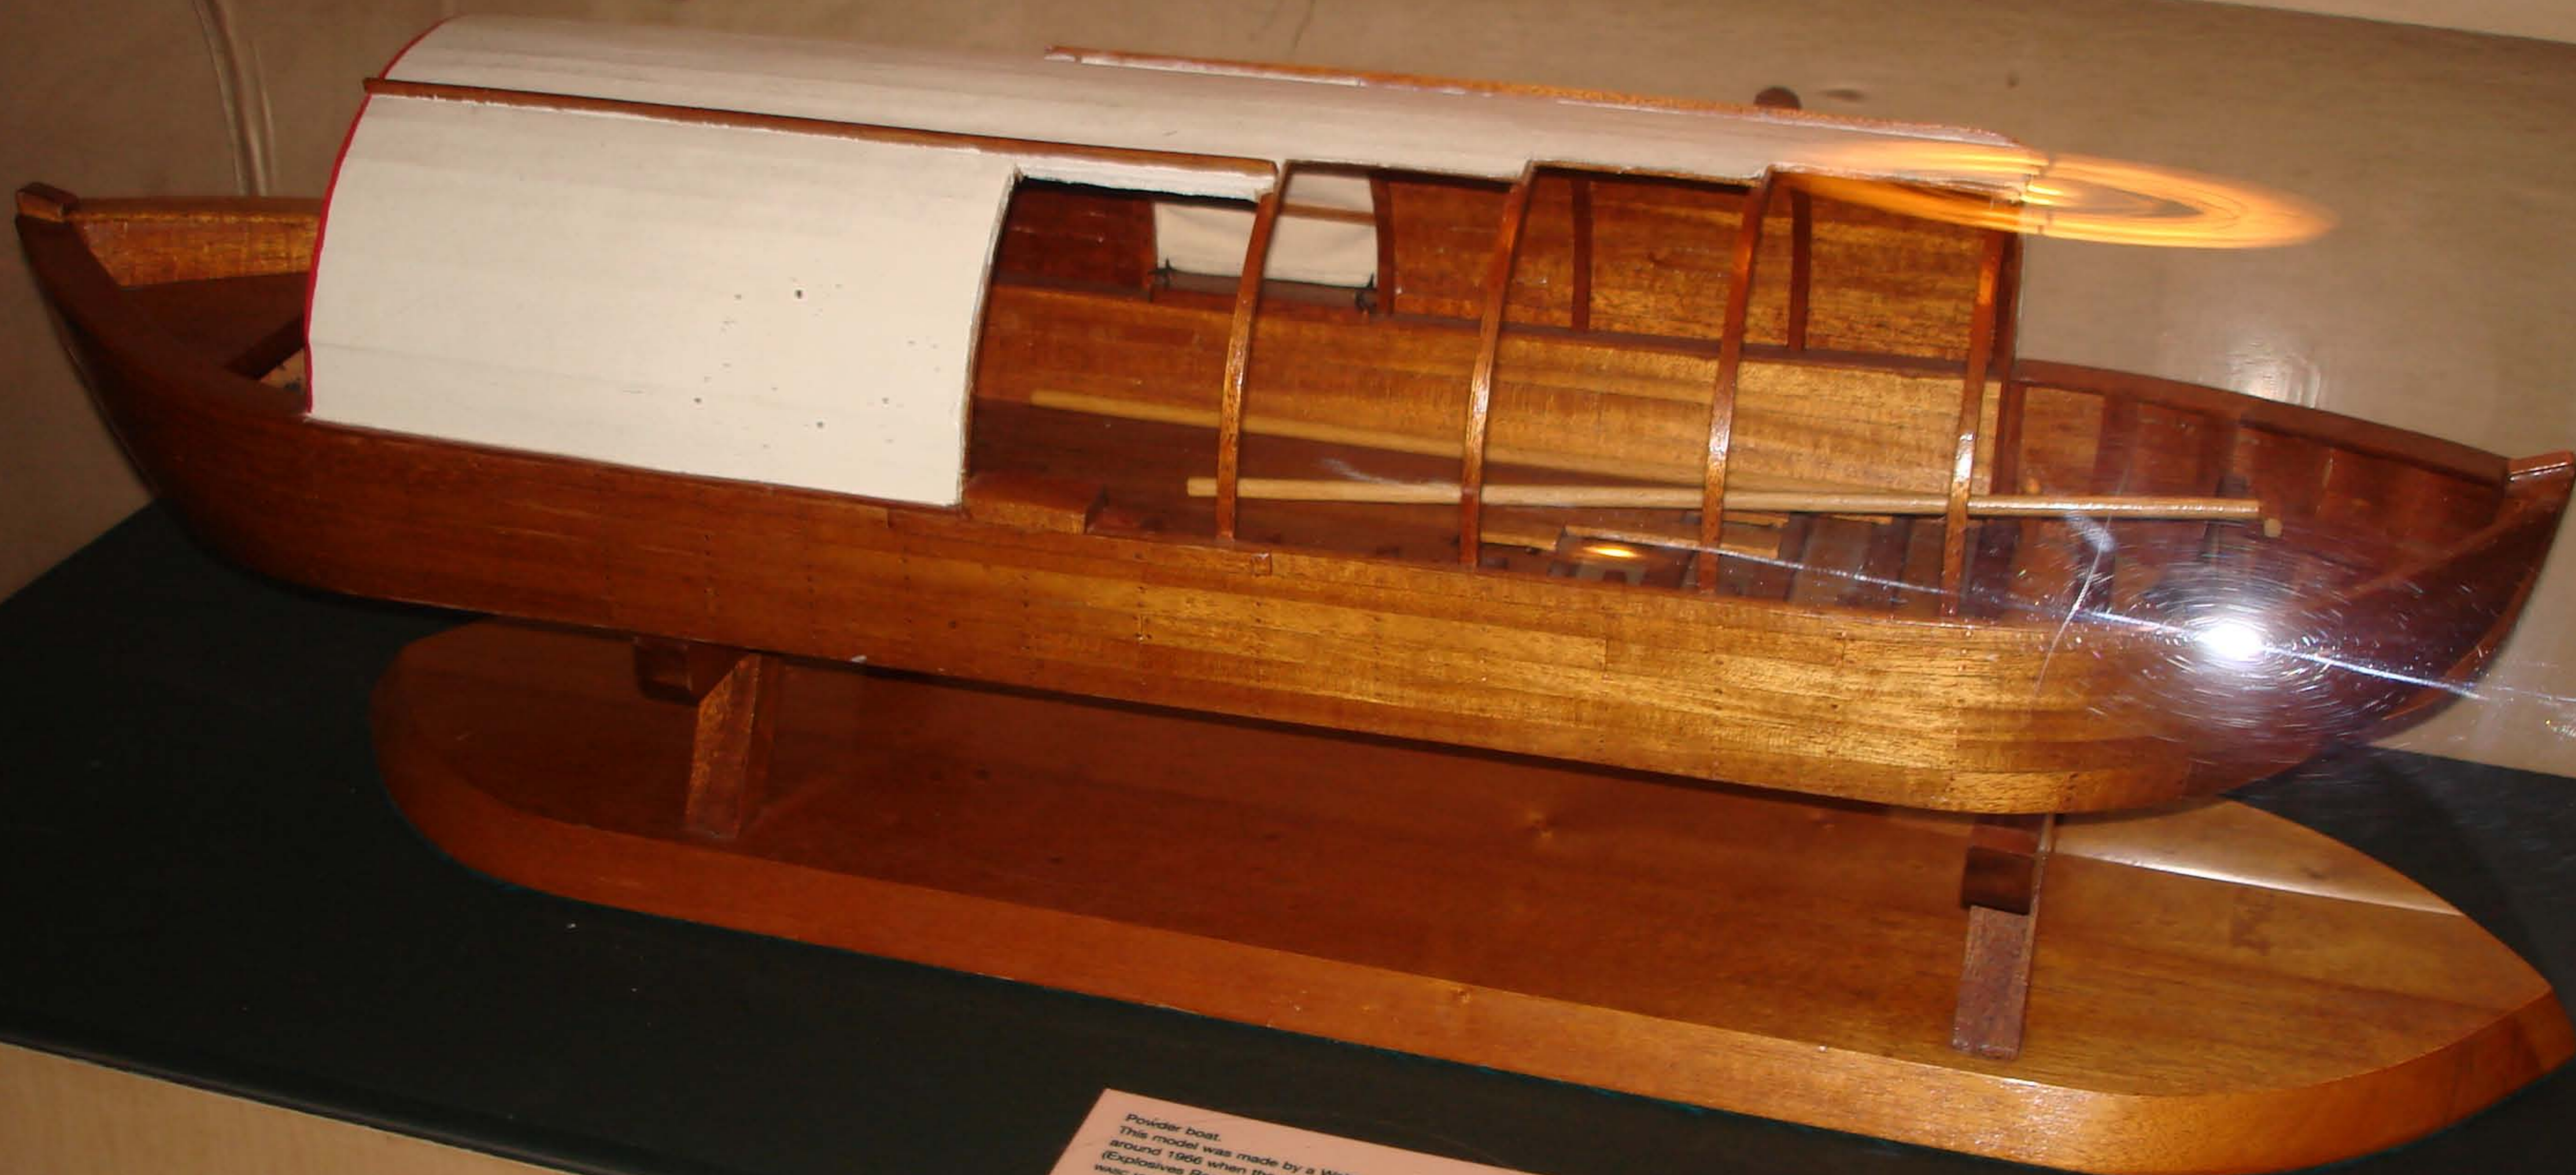

*Powder boat.
The model was made by a Watlington Abbey apprentice
around 1860 when the site was known as ERDE
(Explosive Research and Development Establishment)
WASC 10*

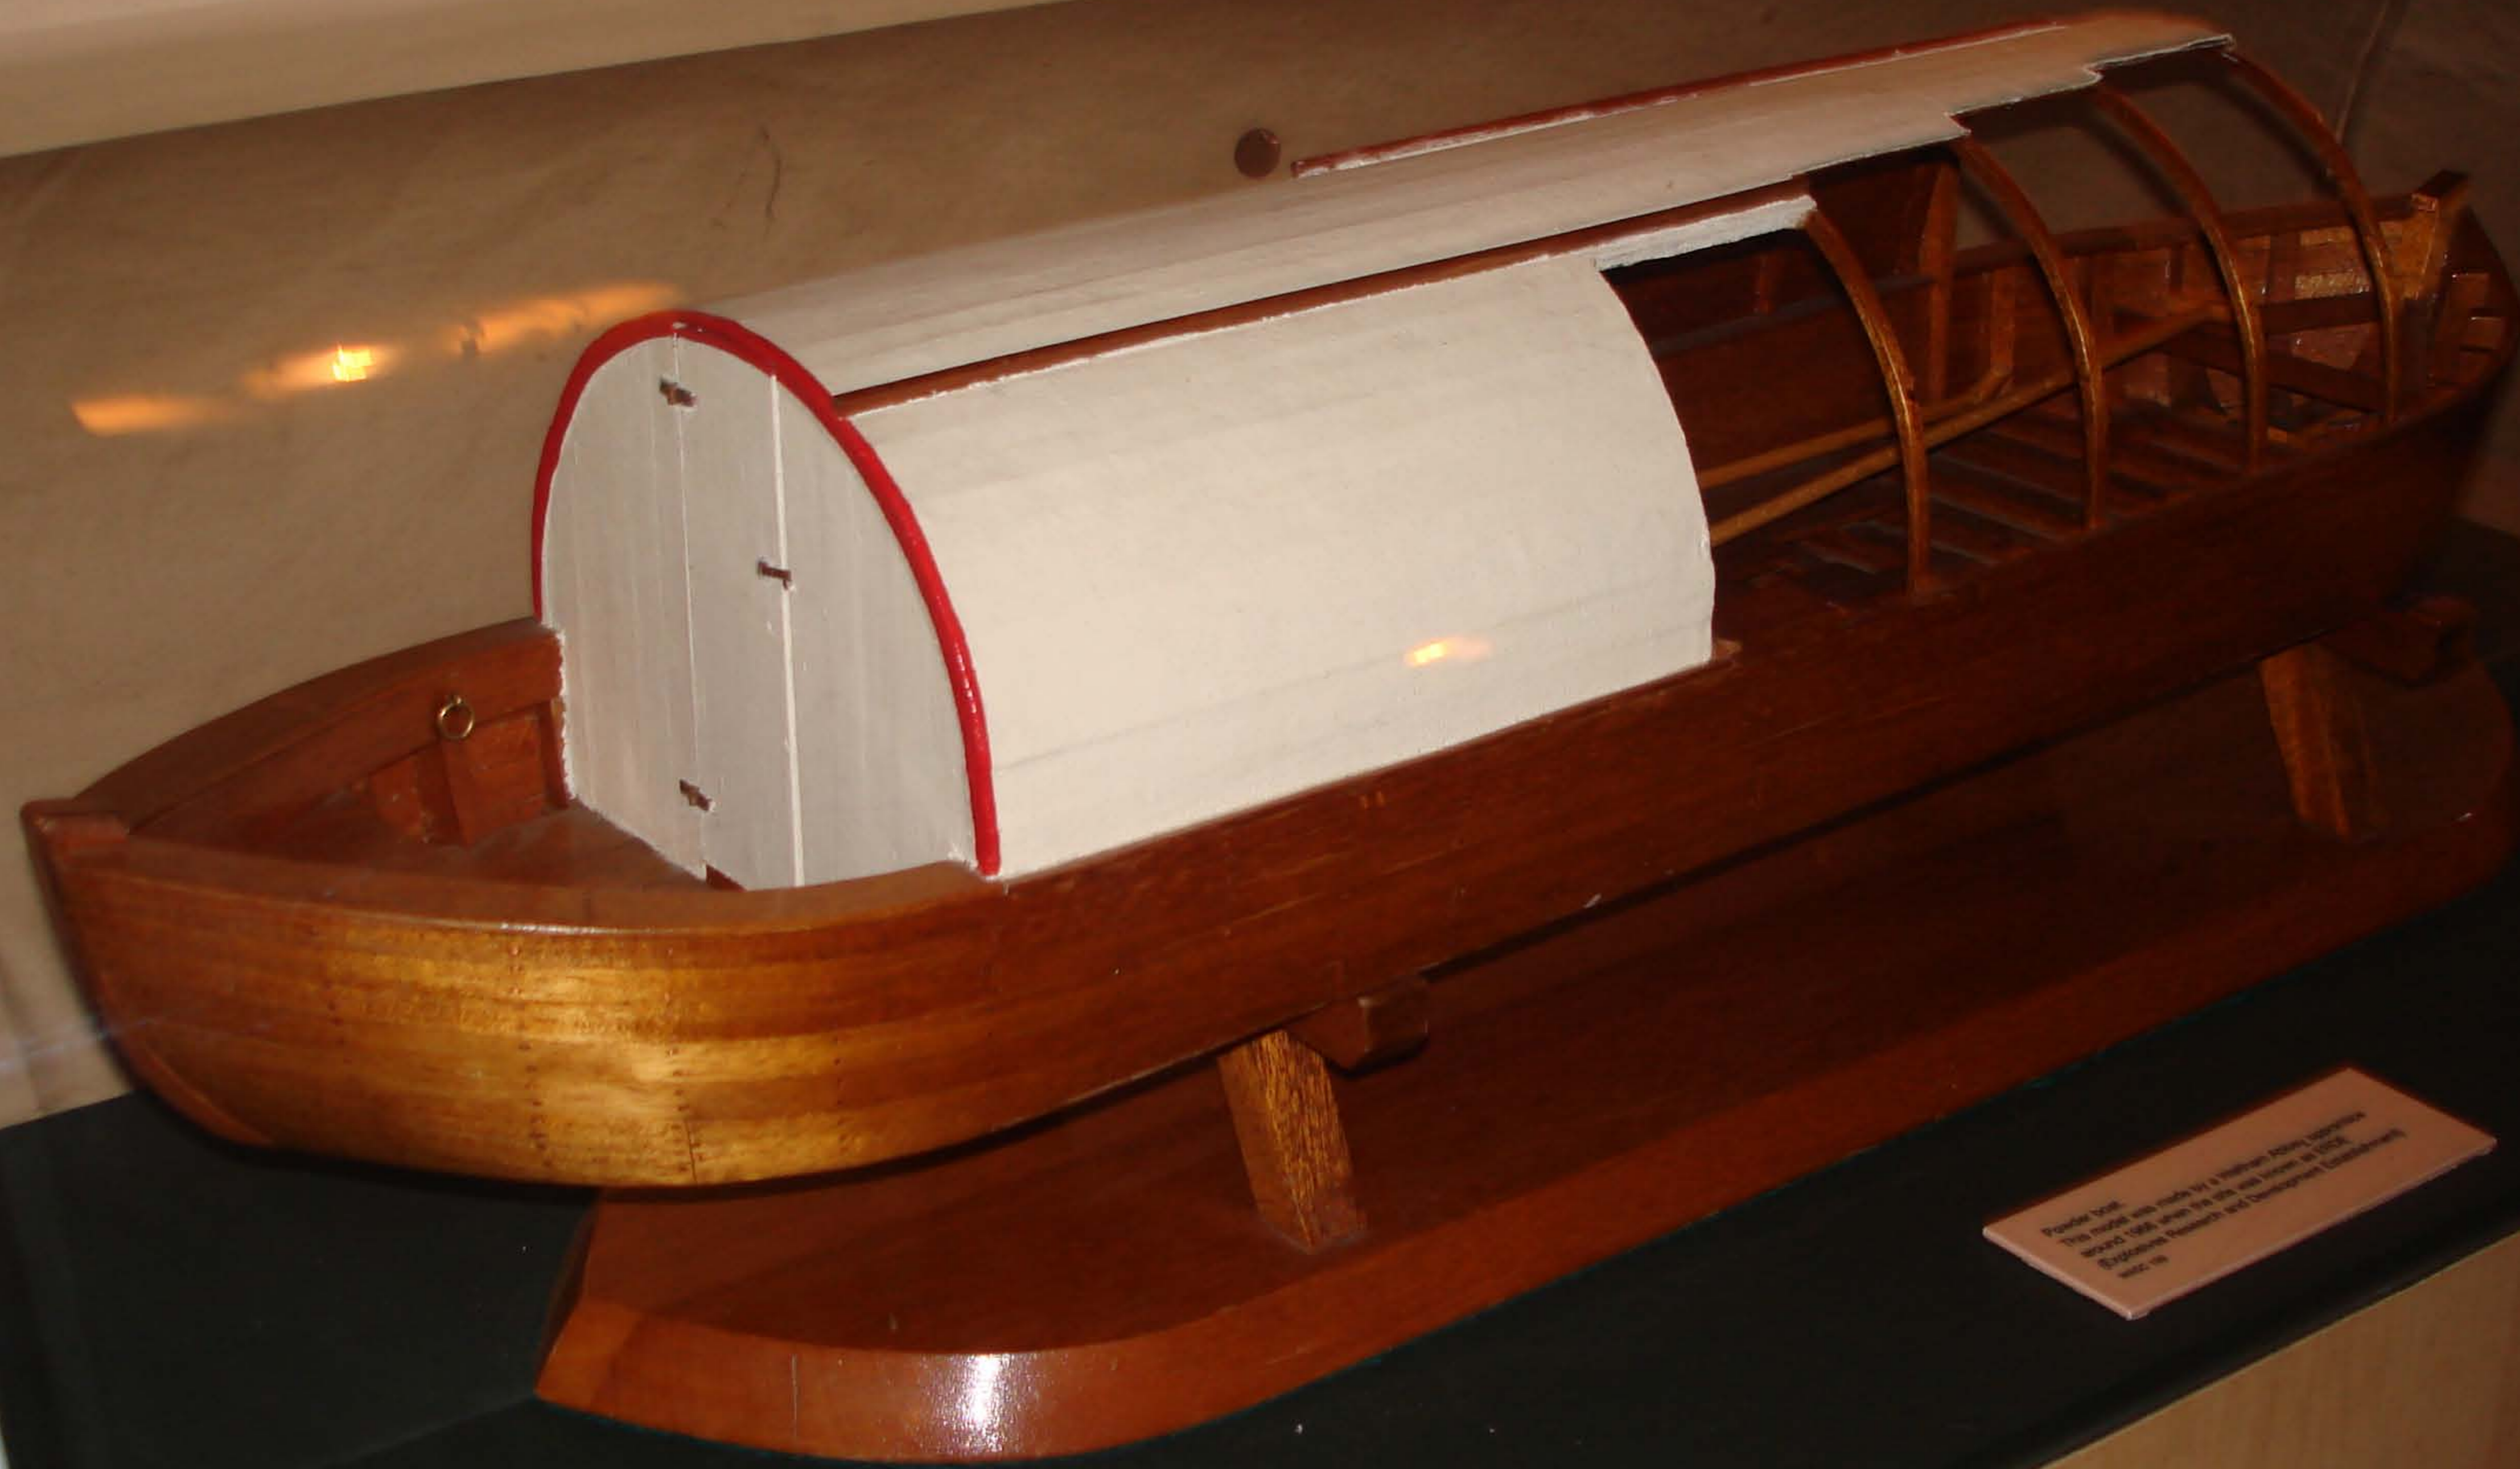

Powder boat
The model was made by a Waltham Abbey apprentice
around 1880 when the site was known as ERDE
(Explosives Research and Development Establishment)
WASC 00

Powder boat.
This model was made by a Waltham Abbey apprentice
around 1900 when the site was known as ERDE
(Explosives Research and Development Establishment)
WASC 109

Model of a boat, made by a Chinese artist, circa 1900. The model is made of wood and is painted in white and red. It is a traditional Chinese boat, possibly a junk or a similar type of vessel. The model is displayed in a museum case.

Powder boat.

This model was made by a Waltham Abbey apprentice around 1966 when the site was known as ERDE (Explosives Research and Development Establishment)

WASC 109

WASC-0109-05