

WASC 2042

WA 1 525

Spoon medicinal

Flying Bomb

Postcard

(see also WASC 180)

1. A breeze commencing turneth this wheel by filling ye shells....

2.-which connected
by belt turneth
this flywheel...

3.-which forceth up
& down this crank
& this lever...

4.-which inflateth
& deflateth ye bellows...

5. thereby forming a propulsion by jet.

3. Subsidiary pipe
connected to rubber
"Blower of ye Raspberries"
(purchasable in ye Houndsditch)

VALUES OF YE ATTACHMENT

1. The projectile needeth no ramp nor kindred device but left in ye field it will upon reception of a favourable wind rise and go upon its way
2. By means of ye Houndsditch fitting (3) ye enemy is given both ye bird and ye bomb simultaneously

ATTACHMENT for to CONVERT ye BOMB that doth DROP into ye BOMB that doth FLY.

Found in Photo Album
of 56th ~~th~~ Essex Home Guard - WASC 180