WALTHAM ABBEY

88 '87

WALTHAM ABBEY

Waltham Church was built by King Harold in 1060 on the site of an earlier church which, legend has it, housed a crucifix possessing miraculous powers of healing.

The church was converted to a monastery by Henry II and after many additions was raised to the dignity of an Abbey in 1184.

After the Reformation the monastery was dissolved and, except for the original nave built by King Harold, demolished in 1540.

The present tower, built in 1556 from the stones of the demolished building, formed a buttress at the west-end of the nave which was in danger of collapse.

Wishing you a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year

Cathy,

Thank you for the photos of Zoe they are really good. I have just printed them off & will take them downstairs for her to see, she will be so proud. Yes that's Micks dad, 5 from the right, middle row. The lady next to George is Audery Anderson who's son is my neighbour next door. Also the lady in the front row second from the left is June who always use to ride her bike, & i knew her from when i was a young girl as she worked in Waltham New Town in a store called Parkers.(thats before she worked at the Royal Mills)

It's a lovely photo of dad he was always smiling with that cheeky grin or whistling.

Thanks again Cathy, could you let me know which paper it is going in.
