Dear Sir or Madam

On 9th February I deposited a leather box, brush and laboratory notebook with you which had been found among my now deceased sister's belongings. I completed your form 113. I have now found another book, which I include. I hope it will be of some interest to you.

Yours faithfully

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Rosie Budden". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line underlining the name.
