I remember it well

DID you work at the Woolwich Arsenal during the First World War and possibly during the Second World War as well?

BBC Television are making a documentary about women at work in the 20th century and would like to talk to women munition workers. If you have interesting stories to tell about your wartime and post-war working experiences please write to us giving details. Write to — Olivia Lichtenstein, BBC TV, Kensington House, Richmond Way, London W14 0AX.
